Suspect Evades Police After Movie-Like Chase

A wild, movie-like chase by police in hot pursuit of a suspect who shined a spotlight in the eyes of two patrolling police officers and then drove off at a high rate of speed, took place

North Torrance streets early Sunday morning.

Officers A. E. Winkler and A. L. Jackson reported that they were on routine patrol on 174th St. between Faysmith and Prairie Aves. when they flashed an oncoming motorist to dim his headlights.

Instead, the driver aimed a bright spotlight in the officers' eyes and as they turned to stop him, hastily sped away. The officers fired a warning shot, but the suspect failed to slow down. They couldn't fire more because of the danger of hitting nearby homes, they said.

The motorist succeeded in eluding the patrol car after a ten-minute chase up and down North Torrance streets.

Merchants' fleet America's largest government-operated peace-time fleet in history—282 cargo ships—is carrying coal and wheat to foreign ports.

CHURCHES

Central Church To Mark Close Of Church Year

Sunday morning will mark the close of the conference year at the Central Church, it was reported yesterday by Rev. Homer H. Miller, pastor.

During the year, substantial progress has been made in the various church activities—at Sunday School and the worship service has made marked increase, he reports.

Forty-three new members have been added to the roll with additional members expected to unite with the church Sunday.

All obligations will be met and an improvement fund has been started for painting, redecorating and expanding the Sunday School facilities.

"We are laborers together with God," will be the topic of the Sunday morning sermon, Rev. Miller has announced. He said members of the Kiwanis Club will be guests at this service.

Sunday evening, the church will sponsor a special Memorial Day service. A special invitation is being extended to the various veteran organizations and their auxiliaries to attend the service. A tribute will be offered to those who have sacrificed their lives for their country.

"We will also honor those who have become disabled, wounded, and sick in serving their country, as well as remembering those who are now serving America and the United Nations," the pastor said.

"Countless American youths have sacrificed themselves that we might enjoy the bounties of this land," he added.

ARTHUR HOUK To Bring Message

Speaker to Tell El Nido Group Of Alaskan Work

"Journey into Alaska," will be the topic of the illustrated missionary message to be presented by Arthur Houk at the First Baptist Church of El Nido at 182nd St. and Kingsdale Ave. Sunday evening at 7:30.

The pastor of the church, Rev. Leland L. Pisel, extends a welcome invitation to everyone to come and hear this outstanding missionary challenge illustrated with color slides of the Alaska mission field.

Born and reared in historical Bucks County near Philadelphia, Penn., Mr. Houk is not only an earnest Bible student, but he brings a wealth of personal experience with him.

While serving in the United States Merchant Marine, he visited the Greek cities of Philippi, Neapolis, Corinth, and Athens, all mentioned in the Book of Acts.

He visited Paul's prison in Philippi where Paul replied to the Philippian jailer's question about salvation: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."

While on his recent missionary trip to Alaska, Mr. Houk, working with the Marine Medical Mission of Klawock, Alaska, conducted evangelistic meetings and engaged in daily vacation Bible School work among the children. He will speak about his experiences in Alaska, Rev. Pisel said.

Man's Identity Is Eternal— Science Topic

God is Soul, and the true identity of man is eternally maintained by God, according to the Bible-lesson in all Christian Science churches Sunday on the subject "Soul and Body." The golden text is from the Psalms (103:1), "Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His holy name."

Luke's gospel relates that when Jesus saw the widow of Nain whose only son was dead, "he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. And he came and touched the bier; and he and they bore Him stood still. And He said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise, And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And He delivered him to his mother" (7:13-15).
